If you're involved in arts, culture, disability or access & inclusion, then you just gotta get activated!

Arts Activated is Australia's leading forum for making arts, culture and events more accessible and inclusive for the 20% of Australians with disability or who are d/Deaf.

Be part of building back the arts and cultural sector for everyone!

Help ensure the post-COVID recovery of Australia's creative industries is inclusive of arts practitioners and audiences with disability.

- Share your ideas and network with artists, arts workers, policymakers & arts experts
- Better understand how to increase participation in programs, performances, exhibitions & events.
- Discover new ideas about accessibility policy & practice
- Learn new ways to better support the health & wellbeing of your clients and community members.

Choose your own activation!

- Attend and network online
- Join the studio audience at Western Sydney University's Parramatta CBD campus
- Attend one of our FREE live sessions produced in partnership with the Vivid Sydney festival.
