

Position Description

Disability and Access Trainer – Casual Position

About Accessible Arts

Accessible Arts is the peak arts and disability organisation in New South Wales. We advance the rights of, and opportunities for, people with disability or who are d/Deaf to develop and sustain professional careers in the arts and have equitable access to arts and culture across NSW. For more information visit www.aarts.net.au

We are seeking a passionate Trainer to deliver our disability and access training workshops to our clients across NSW and the ACT.

About The Position

You will be responsible for delivering a range of training workshops surrounding disability and access. Workshops are both public and private and target all individuals and organisations that operate within the arts sector. Trainers can deliver our sessions online through zoom or in person onsite.

The workshops we deliver are:

- Disability Confidence Training
- Being Accessible Online
- Accessible Marketing and Communications
- Accessible Exhibition Design
- Accessible Festivals and Events
- How to be a Good Ally

To support the delivery of this training we are looking for a casual trainer to facilitate and present these workshops. The position requires a personality that is confident in group settings and public speaking. The role is casual, and hours will depend on the training demand.

Position Responsibilities

- Deliver Accessible Arts' training workshops to the arts and culture sector
- Contribute to course content and course development

- Provide training in alternative formats if necessary to enable people with disability to participate in the training
- Collect participant feedback and contribute towards the evaluation of the effectiveness of the training resources
- Promote a positive image of Accessible Arts
- Act in a professional manner and maintain a positive working relationship with organisations and individuals

Selection Criteria

To be considered for this opportunity you must meet the following criteria:

- An understanding of inclusive and accessible practice
- Demonstrated awareness and understanding of adult education principles
- Experience in delivering training programs/workshops
- An ability to confidently appraise an organisation's policies and practice in relation to access for people with disability

The following criteria is considered desirable for this role:

- Certificate IV in Training and Assessment or teaching qualifications
- Experience in delivering training programs/workshops to adults
- Lived experience of disability
- Experience working in one or more artforms

To Apply

Please provide a covering letter specifically responding to the selection criteria along with a copy of your CV, including the contact details of two referees. Email your application to mperrow@aarts.net.au

Alternative application formats – such as video formats – will be accepted.

Accessible Arts values and promotes diversity and inclusion in our workplace and encourages people with disability, First Nations people and people of diverse cultural backgrounds, sexualities and gender identities to apply.

Applications close: 9am on Thursday 9 December 2021

Enquiries

For further information contact Marika Perrow, Arts Development Manager Accessible Arts, mperrow@aarts.net.au